118	2	Add, "There is a host of targeted resources to meet the need of underperforming schools. There is a long history of a variety of categorical programs, such as Title I. Recently the state accountability program has provided considerable resources to low-performing schools. Over a four-year period of time, a billion dollars has been spent on textbooks. Monies have been allocated to give incentives for people to enter the teaching profession and resources targeted to give incentives for teachers to teach in low-performing schools. The list is extensive and exhaustive. In the department, we are designing a centralized grant access and availability component on our website.”

- 119 7 Add, “When I first arrived, that division reported to me. It was subsequently moved to the Accountability Branch and to the other chief deputy.”
- 127 18 Change the second “they”, to “there”.
