ELIASBERG Q. Good morning. A. Good morning. Q. Im Peter Eliasberg, attorney from the ACLU, Southern California. If you would, spell your first and last name for the court reporter. A. Carol, C-a-r-o-l, Shellenberger, S-h-e-l-l-e-n-b-e-r-g-er. Q. Okay. Let me quickly go through the ground rules of the deposition process. But let me ask you first, have you been deposed before? A. Yes.

1	Q. Approximately how many times?	1 substantive changes to the transcript, but I need to let
2	A. Once.	2 you know that if you were to make a substantive change
3	Q. When was that?	3 change a "yes" answer to a "no" answer or substantially
4	A. As I recall, about four years ago.	4 change the meaning of one of your answers, that I or
5	Q. And generally what was the subject matter of	5 some other counsel would have the opportunity if, for
6	the case?	6 example, we were in court, to comment on the fact that
7	A. It was a human resources case, a lawsuit.	7 you did change your answer.
8	Q. And by human resources, you mean a	8 Do you understand that?
9	discrimination case?	9 A. Yes.
10	A. Basically an ADA case.	10 Q. I'm telling you that because what we're trying
11	Q. And by "ADA," you mean Americans with	11 to do here is get your best answers and your best
12	Disabilities Act?	12 recollections at this point rather than you saying I'm
13	A. Yes.	13 not going to worry about it, I'll just do the
14	MR. SEFERIAN: Wait until he finishes his	14 corrections down the line.
15	question.	15 Do you understand that?
16	THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.	16 A. Yes.
17	Q. BY MR. ELIASBERG: Were you a party in this	17 Q. You do also understand that the court reporter
18	case or a witness?	18 has sworn you in and that you're under oath, and even
19	A. A witness.	19 though we're not in a formal setting in the sense of
20	Q. Four years ago seems like a long time. Let me	20 being in a courtroom, the same laws and penalties of
21	go through the basic ground rules of the deposition, and	21 perjury apply here as would apply in a court of law.
22	go out of order because I think the first one is	22 Do you understand that?
23	important. Because there is a reporter taking down the	23 A. Yes.
24	information, it's very difficult for her if two people	24 Q. As far as the questions that I ask you, I may
25	are trying to talk at the same time. I know in ordinary	25 ask you confusing questions, but I'm not trying to trick conversation we sort of finish each other's thoughts and you or confuse you. I'm saying that because if you 1 1 don't understand a question that I ask, you should let 2 come on the end of a question someone might be asking us 2 3 3 because we know what the question is, but it doesn't me know. And the reason you should do that is because 4 work here. 4 if you do answer the question, then people will assume 5 5 I'll do my best to make sure that I don't start because it's in the transcript, you answered the 6 asking a question until you're finished with your 6 question, that you understood the question. So if 7 answer, and if you could try to make sure that I'm 7 vou're confused, please feel free to tell me. I will 8 finished with mine before you start answering, that 8 make every effort to rephrase the question and make it would really help the court reporter and everyone 9 9 understandable for you. 10 involved. 10 Do you understand that? 11 The court reporter is taking down everything 11 A. Yes. 12 that is said here today by any of the counsel, by you, 0. Okay. I'm entitled here when I ask you a 12 13 and unless we state clearly that we're off the record, 13 question to your best recollection and your best, I 14 the court reporter is going to take down everything in 14 would say, estimate of an answer, as long as that is based on something. We don't want you to guess. I 15 the transcript. 15 Do you understand that? 16 16 don't want you to just wildly speculate as to what the 17 A. Yes. 17 answer to a question might be. If you don't have a 18 О. And you will have an opportunity at the end of 18 basis to answer that question, you shouldn't answer it 19 this deposition, or not right at the end, but subsequent 19 and you should let me know that. If you don't know the to this deposition, you will be provided with a copy of 20 20 answer, don't have a basis to answer it, there's nothing the transcript that the court reporter has created, and 21 21 wrong with saying you don't know the answer. Okay? 22 22 vou'll have a chance to look that over. A. Yes. 23 23 Now, you will have the opportunity to correct 0. But if you do have a basis to answer, for 24 if you see spelling mistakes or small minor mistakes if 24 example, if I were to ask you a date and you don't you want. You also would have the opportunity to make 25 remember if it was April 14th or April 15th, you should 25

And the paragraph starts, the SFP was implemented in 1998 and changed the way schools were built and modernized in California. Do you see that sentence? A. Yes. Q. How did the SFP change the ways schools were built and modernized in California? MR. SEFERIAN: Objection. Overly broad. Calls for an inadmissible legal opinion. Vague and ambiguous. Lacks foundation. THE WITNESS: My understanding is basically this actually came out of a narrative that I did not write, so I'm actually paraphrasing another document written in our office. Q. BY MR. Ms. Shellenberger, he's not looking for any confidential communications between us, so go ahead and answer the question to the extent you can without disclosing any of those communications. THE WITNESS: I have a basic understanding from what I've read of the Williams case. There are several school districts that have filed a complaint against the State of California and the governor on a variety of issues. Q. BY MR. ELIASBERG: What are some of those issues? A. ELIASBERG: What's your understanding of the term with respect to, as you said, "our program"? A. Deferred maintenance is a program that we administer at OPSC, and deferred maintenance is basically a requirement to create a five-year plan and to talk about their maintenance needs for their schools. Q. And when you refer to "their maintenance needs," who are you referring to? A. The school districts. Q. Do you have an understanding as to whether OPSC has any role or function with respect to the deferred maintenance program? MR. SALVATY: Objection. Vague and ambiguous. Lacks foundation. Calls for speculation. MR. SEFERIAN: Vague and ambiguous as to "role or function."

THE WITNESS: I don't recall how these numbers again, I derived them from a report, but I don't remember specifically how I laid them out in this document, so I'm not quite sure how to answer that. Q. BY MR. REED: Okay. Do you know within the report that you reviewed from which this number came, what field or column that this number came from? A. If I understand if I recall, the report does have several fields, and I believe this might have been one number in one of the columns, but I can't remember if I got it from a specific column or did I derive it by adding or subtracting numbers.
