1 have about 40 students in each class and in these classes in particular it is hard to follow the 2 lessons. Being on track A in a multitrack school is hard because we are in school for four 3 months, on break for two, in school for four months, and then on break for two. Because of the 4 two different two month breaks it is sometimes harder for me to remember the class material and 5 when we get back in school we have to spend the first part of class reviewing.

6 6. In my 10th grade English class a roach crawled over my shoe. There are roaches
7 in the girls locker room and in my 11th grade literature class. In ninth grade there was a story in 8 the school newspaper about a nest of rats in the swimming pool. It is disgusting to have roaches 9 and rats at my school.

10 7. Last year in my 10th grade English class the heater was broken for the whole 11 semester. In the winter it was really cold. I had to bring extra sweaters to class but it was still 12 really hard to concentrate and get anything done because I was so cold..

13 8. The bathrooms at Fremont High School are dirty and usually there is no toilet 14 paper or paper towels. Sometimes there is no soap and about half of the locks on the stall doors
15 are broken. At least two times this year both bathrooms in the main building have been locked
16 and I wasn't able to go to the bathroom. The fact that the bathrooms are dirty, don't have supplies 17 and sometimes are locked makes me think that the school doesn't care about the students.
