Having been first duly 6 6 sworn, was examined and testified 7 7 APPEARANCES: as follows: 8 8 9 FOR THE PLAINTIFF: 9 EXAMINATION 10 10 MORRISON & FOERSTER LLP BY: ANTHONY L. PRESS, ESQ. BY MS. KOURY: 11 11 12 1925 Century Park East 12 Q. Good morning, Jacqueline. My name is 13 Suite 2200 13 Vanessa Koury, and I'm an attorney representing the 14 Los Angeles, California 90067-2701 14 State of California in this lawsuit. 310 203-4030 15 Would you please state and spell your full 15 16 16 name for the record? A. J-A-C-K-E-L-Y-N-E. M-O-N-T-E-S. 17 FOR THE DEFENDANT STATE OF CALIFORNIA: 17 O'MELVENY & MYERS LLP 18 18 Q. Have you ever had your deposition taken 19 BY: VANESSA M. KOURY, ESQ. 19 before? 20 400 South Hope Street 20 A. No. 21 Los Angeles, California 90071-2899 21 O. Is that no? 22 213 430-6000 22 A. No. 23 23 Q. Let me briefly explain to you what we're 24 24 going to be doing here today. I'm going to be 25 25 asking you a series of questions about this lawsuit Page 3 Page 5 1 INDEX 1 to determine the facts that you know about it. The 2 2 court reporter here will be recording my questions 3 PAGE 3 and your answers which will then be transcribed WITNESS EXAMINATION 4 JACKELYNE MONTES (By Ms. Koury) 4, 146 4 into a booklet for your review. When you receive 5 5 the booklet, you can make changes that you feel are (By Mr. Press) 145 6 necessary. However, you should be aware that the 6 7 7 lawyers in this case will be free to comment on any 8 8 changes that you make at trial or at any other 9 EXHIBITS PAGE 9 hearing or proceeding in this case. 1 - Declaration of Jackelyne Montes 147 10 Do you understand that? 10 11 11 A. Yes. 12 12 Q. Again, it's very important that you 13 13 respond to these questions as fully and fairly as 14 14 you possibly can. 15 15 Do you understand that? 16 16 A. Yes. 17 17 Q. Your answer -- I'm sorry, when you answer 18 18 my questions, it's important that you verbalize 19 19 your answers because nods or shakes of the head 20 20 can't be recorded by the court reporter. 21 21 Do you understand that? 22 22 A. Yes. 23 23 Q. It's also hard for the reporter to get a 24 24 clear record if there's more than one person 25 25 speaking at a time. So if you'll please allow me to finish my question before you begin to answer, I, too, will allow you to finish answering my questions before I ask you another question. Is that okay? A. Yes. Q. It's important that you listen carefully to the question. If you don't hear or understand a question that I'm asking, let me know and if appropriate I'll repeat it or try to rephrase it. If you answer, I'll presume that you heard and understood the question that I asked unless you tell me otherwise. Do you understand that? A. Yes. Q. You're required to answer my questions to the best of your ability, but I don't want you to guess. So in other words, I'm entitled to your best estimate. Do you understand the difference? A. Yes. Q. Because your testimony is given under oath, it will have the same force and effect as if you were testifying in a court of law. You're, therefore, subject to all the penalties of perjury for giving false testimony. So even though we are here in an informal setting today, you're 	 testify and give your best testimony today? A. Unless I can't remember. That's all. Q. Have you consumed any medication or alcohol or anything else that would I'm sorry, that would cloud your mind or interfere with your ability to answer these questions? A. No. Q. Do you have an attorney here today? A. Yes. Mr. Press. Q. I'm going to ask you to speak up just a little louder so we can all hear you. When did you meet Mr. Press? A. Thursday. Q. This past Thursday? A. Yes. Q. How did you learn about this case? A. With Laura. Q. Does Laura have a last name? A. My attorney. Q. Laura is your attorney? A. Yes. Q. Do you know where she worked? A. A

 testifying as if you were in a formal courtroom with a judge. Do you understand that? A. Yes, I do. Q. If you need a break for any reason, please just let me know and I'll tell the court reporter and we'll go off the record. If there's a question pending, I'll ask that you answer it before we take a break. Is that okay? A. Yes. Q. If at any point during today's deposition a question that I ask or an answer that you are giving triggers your memory as to something that you had previously testified about, please let me know and we'll get that testimony on the record. Is that okay? A. Yes. Q. If you don't, I'll assume that the answers you give to me today are full and complete. Do you have any questions about these ground rules? A. No. Q. Is there any reason why you're unable to 	 Q. ACLU? A. Yeah. Q. And when did you first hear about this case? A. With Laura. Q. Do you remember when that was? MR. PRESS: Let me just caution the witness not to reveal any attorney-client communications. So if she asks you about any communications between you and your attorney, I'm going to object that they are attorney-client communications. And if she asks you a question where in order to answer it you need to tell what Laura said to you or what you said to Laura, don't do that. Okay? BY MS. KOURY: Q. When did you first learn about this case from Laura? A. It was, I think, end of July. Q. Of this past July? A. Yeah. Q. Did Laura contact you? A. No, she was at her neighbor's house and my neighbor called me to see if I was interested in it

- 3 Q. What kind of homework did you get?
- 4 A. Sometimes we'd like vocabulary of like
- 5 art. Or sometimes we would just take our projects
- 6 home and finish it at home.
- 7 Q. How did you do your homework without the 8 book?
- 9 A. Well, the project, we -- we already knew
- 10 what to do with the project. But with the
- vocabulary we like had to finish in class. Or 11
- 12 sometimes we had to go like after school and get a
- 13 book. And if there are like -- if there are -- if
- 14 other students come and get the book after school
- sometimes I wouldn't get a book to take home. 15
- O. Students could check the art books out to 16 17 take home for homework?
- 18
 - A. Yeah.
- 19 Q. Did you ever go to check an art book out
- for homework and you weren't able to because there 20 were none left? 21
- 22 A. Yes.
- 23 Q. How often did that happen?
- 24 A. That happened once.
- 25 Q. What did you do?

- Q. What do you mean by that?
- 2 A. They -- like things we could like --
- 3 because in the book sometimes they had like
- 4 examples of like projects we could have done, and
- 5 we couldn't do them. 6
 - Q. So you did have science books?
 - A. Just the class set.
 - Q. And you didn't have to share the class
- 9 set?
- 10 A. No.
- Q. And you said there were experiments in the 11
- book that you didn't do in class? 12
- 13 A. Yes.
- 14 Q. Did you ever hear the teacher say anything about the experiments in the book that you weren't 15 doing in class? 16
- 17 A. Yes. She said if we wanted to do them we had to bring money. 18
- 19 Q. What happened?
- A. Sometimes some students didn't bring money 20
- 21 and so she couldn't go buy the stuff so we simply
- 22 didn't do them.
- 23 Q. Other than the plant experiment, did you
- 24 do any other experiments?
- 25 A. Not that I recall. I don't know.

How long were the lines? A. Like ten minutes. 	$ \begin{array}{c} 1\\2\\3\\4\\5\\6\\7\\8\\9\\10\\11\\12\\13\\14\\15\\16\\17\\18\\19\\20\\21\\22\\23\\24\\25\end{array} $	 Q. How long do you have to wait in line this school year? A. Two minutes or so. Q. And last school year in the 7th grade, did you think the bathrooms were too dirty? A. Yes. Q. Did you ever go to use the bathroom while you were in the 7th grade and there wasn't any toilet paper? A. Yes. Q. How many times did that happen, do you remember? A. Like about three or four times. Q. What did you do? A. Well, I went I forgot my friend's name. I told her if she can give me some. Q. So there was toilet paper in the other stalls? A. Yeah. Q. What about paper towels, did you ever use the bathroom while you were in the 7th grade and there just wasn't any paper towels? A. Yeah, there wasn't. Sometimes there wasn't like paper towels at all. I mean there was none whatsoever paper towels.

 Q. What about your science class? Did you have a book in that class? A. Just the class set. Q. How many different books in that set? A. One. Q. Do you remember the name of the book? A. No. Q. Did you have your own book to use in class without having to share with other students? A. Yes. Q. Did you ever want to take the book home? A. Yes. Q. Why? A. So I could finish what I didn't finish and to study. Q. What happened when you wanted to take it home? A. I couldn't. Or I just had to go after school and take it home. But sometimes students from other classes would take it, too, so sometimes I couldn't get a book to take home. Q. Students were allowed to check out the science book if they wanted to? A. Yes. But they had to come after school. Q. And did you ever you stated that 	 A. Yes. Q. What happened the three times that you wanted to check out the science book to take home and you couldn't? A. Well, I had to go I had I told the teacher. And he said that he couldn't do nothing about it because there wasn't any books. And I had to I had to do it in class. Q. You had to do the section review the next day in class? A. Yes. Q. Did you finish it? A. Sometimes. But I had to catch up with the other work so there was like I would kind of finish it but not completely. Q. Other than the section reviews which you did in class and then if you didn't finish you took it home for homework, do you remember any other types of homework that he assigned? A. No, I don't remember any. Q. Did you ever have tests in this class? A. Yes. Q. Did you ever have tests?
 Page 99 sometimes you would go to check out the science book to take home and there weren't enough? A. Yes. Q. How often did that happen? A. About three times. Q. Did your teacher assign homework in the science class? A. Yes. Q. What type of homework? A. Section reviews. That's all. Q. The section reviews, were they from the book? A. Yes. Q. So how would you do that without the book? A. I would I would read the section in class and do the questions. Do as many questions as I can in the classroom. Q. From the book? A. Yes. Q. The section review was in the book and you would and the questions were in the book and you would do it during class? A. Yes. Q. And if you didn't finish in class, then it became homework? 	 Page 101 A. Oh, I would sometimes take notes. And from those notes I would study. Q. Notes that you took in class while he was lecturing? A. Yes. Q. Would you have to study from the worksheets? A. Yes. Q. Did you have experiments in this class like labs? A. I remember the microscope experiment. We had like a little container that had like water from rain. And we looked at the water through a microscope. Q. Do you remember any other experiments besides that one? A. No. Q. What about your social studies class at Lynwood in the 6th grade? Did you use any books for that class? A. Yes. Q. Do you remember how many different types of books you used? A. Only one. Q. Did you have your own book to use in class

A. I think in January or February.

- A. Yes.
- Q. Why?
- A. Because we -- basically they didn't do

Earlier, we were talking about your textbooks in this class, your English textbook. You said that you had your own book to use in class; is that right? A. Sometimes we had to share. MR. PRESS: Let me object to the last two questions as asked and answered. BY MS. KOURY: Q. Did it bother you to share in class? A. Yes. Q. Why did it bother you? A. About four or five times, is that what you said? A. Yes. Q. What did you think of Ms. Alfaro? Was she a good teacher? A. Yes. Q. Why did you think she was a good teacher? A. Because she knew what she was teaching because I learned a lot from that class and she cared about us and she made she made sure everyone in class when she was teaching something new made sure everybody understood what she was teaching. I'm sure there's other things. I just don't remember. Q. Did she give you tests in this class? A. Yes. Q. Did Mr. Street give you any tests before he left? A. No. Q.
